We encourage the public to provide written testimony before the hearing by visiting the committee website at <https://autl.assembly.ca.gov/> and following the web portal submission instructions. Please note that any written testimony submitted to the committee is considered public comment and may be read into the record or reprinted.

Due to the statewide stay-at-home order and guidance on physical distancing, seating for this hearing will be very limited for press and for the public. All are encouraged to watch the hearing from its live stream on the Assembly's website at <https://www.assembly.ca.gov/todaysevents>.

The Capitol will be open for attendance of this hearing, but the public is strongly encouraged to participate via the web portal, phone or one of the Remote Testimony Stations available for testimony outside of the Capitol.

Information regarding Remote Testimony Station locations and phone lines will be made available on the committee website closer to the hearing date. We encourage the public to monitor the committee's website for updates.
