

Oversight Hearing on Energy Efficiency – Measuring for Success: Coordination, Collaboration, Transparency

Wednesday, March 6, 2013
State Capitol, Room 4202

1) Welcome

- Assemblymember Steven Bradford, Chair
Assembly Utilities and Commerce Committee
- Assemblymember Jim Patterson, Vice-Chair
Assembly Utilities and Commerce Committee
- Assemblymember Richard Bloom, Guest Member

2) Reports on State Energy Policy Oversight

- Stuart Drown, Executive Director, Little Hoover Commission
- Tiffany Roberts, Senior Analyst, Energy & Climate Change, Legislative Analyst's Office

3) Achieving reduced demand for electricity and natural gas

- Cynthia Mitchell, Energy Economics Inc., on behalf of The Utility Reform Network (TURN)
- Lucas Davis, Associate Professor, UC Berkeley, Haas School of Business
- Stephanie Chen, Energy and Telecommunications Policy Director, The Greenlining Institute

4) State Agencies and Departments – Organizing to achieving State Energy Policy Goals

- Edward Randolph, Director, Energy Division, California Public Utilities Commission
- Andrew McAllister, Commissioner, California Energy Commission
- Lisa Silverman, Executive Officer, Office of Public School Construction
- Martha Diepenbrock, Director of External Affairs, California Conservation Corps

5) Public Comment